of this Post.

be held in this place on Saturday and Sunday, June 1st and 2d. Love feast at 9 a. m. Sunday.

Longwell Bros. are still at the front, with fresh goods in all their various lines. The popularity of Harry and George grows with their growth and is based on actual merit.

W. H. Wilson bought of Wm. Thayer, for the City market, one 2-years-old steer that tipped the beam at 1,260 lbs., live weight, and dressed 772 lbs., a little more than 61 lbs. per hundred.

The Michigan Central, in their new time schedule, have ignored the existence of Dowagiac, so far as the fast trains are concerned, and the denizens of that hamlet are wroth thereat.

Ed. Dillon, of Waverly, and Miss Lizzie Moore, of Alma, were married at St. Mary's Catholic church, in this village, on Wednesday morning of last week, Rev. Fr. O'Rourke officiating.

Married, at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Wm. E. Hunt, in this o'clock. That each one shall make a special effort to attend, is earnestly requested.

It is somewhat singular to note the difference in the number of dog owners at different times of the year. While the supervisor was making his rounds the town was full of ownerless curs--and cur-esses, but they are all at home again now.

The season for cut-worm stories is now fully open. Jeff Chaffee captured eighty of the pests around the roots of one little raspberry bush. He also asserts that the worms had climbed the bush and cut off the foliage, which was just starting.

Our law-makers--or at least the senate branch of that body--don't seem to take kindly to woman suffrage or capital punishment. Bills which had crept through the house for both those measures were promptly strangled in the senate last Thursday.

Broughton has got his artist at work again and, although his productions may be a little off on perspective and foreshortening, they are not only expressive, but impressive, as well. But the goods are there, the prices bisected, and that's what impresses the people.

Our wool buyers have made no public announcement of prices as yet, and we are not informed of the fact if there has been any marketed here this season.
In looking through our neighboring exchanges we see prices mentioned running all the way from 15, 18, 20, to 23 cents.

Less than two months ago Albert O.
Nash, of Marcellus, had a happy home and the companionship of a loving wife and promising baby boy. Now he is a childless widower. Their baby died on the 25th of March, and to-day he will lay at rest all that is mortal of its mother.

Under Sheriff McCabe luxuriates in a duster. Now a duster ain't much of a thing to luxuriate in, but when the other fellow has to pay for it, that makes the difference. McFarlin was caught in the very act of smoking a cigar--on the sly--and the penalty was the duster aforementioned.

Milo Huey, a thorough business man, has assumed the proprietorship of the Waverly cheese factory. He has secured the services of Mr. Geo. F. Shattuck, a practical cheese maker of some experience, who will have charge of the work. We bespeak for the new management an abundant success.

Mr. Vandeburg, of Kingston, Ill., a brother of Mrs. S. T. Conway, arrived here last Friday from Mt. Clemens, where he had been testing the virtues of the mineral baths for sciatica. He is much improved and left for home Monday, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Lydia Vandeburg, who had spent a couple of weeks here.

The attention of breeders is called to the advertisement of Winewood, elsewhere in this paper. Gentlemen owning well-bred mares will gladly avail themselves of this opportunity of transmitting the blood of the matchless Nut-wood into the veins of their colts.
Without doubt Winewood is the best bred stallion in Michigan.

Mr. Matt. Dillon will erect a fine residence on his lots on Van Buren street, in the near future, and move his family here. His object in leaving his extensive farming interests in Waverly is to give his children the benefit of our public schools. Mr. Dillon is an exemplary citizen and will be heartily welcomed by our village people.

The attention of our farmer-friends is called to the advertisement of Messrs.
Conner & Osborn, dealers in all kinds of agricultural implements, wagons, carriages, etc. These gentlemen will also buy wool this season, paying the very best market price for the same.
This firm is too well known to our people to need commendation from us.

We notice in the Portland Oregonian of the 12th inst. a highly complimentary notice of the performance on the piano of Miss May Cook, daughter of Prof.
Cook, formerly of this place. It was on the occasion of a concert by the Orchestral Union, and is referred to as "the most finished and artistic piece of work ever attempted by a Portland amateur."

The 19th annual meeting of the Van Buren county pioneers' association will be held at Breedsville on Wednesday, June 5th. The gathering will be addressed by Hon. J. J. Woodman; Hon.
C. J. Monroe, Hon. A. B. Copley and others. Music, singing and a picnic dinner in Snell's grove will constitute the main features of the occasion.
Everybody is invited.

Representative Stoffel's bill providing for the relief of soldiers (and their families) not cared for at the soldiers' home, passed the house on Wednesday of last week. It makes mandatory the appointment of a county relief commission; allows the supervisors to spread a tax as high as 3-10 of a mill for a relief fund; provides for a monthly distribution of money. It is thought highly probable that the bill will pass the senate and become a law.

Sheriff McIntosh, of Cass county, will give $100 for the fiend in any jail in the United States who criminally assaulted a 10-years-old girl named Wilson, of Newberg, Cass county, a few days ago. He is described as being 35 years old, 5 feet 7 inches high, weight about 150 lbs., blue eyes and a full sandy beard of three or four weeks' growth. Wore a soft gray hat, brown coat and vest, dark pants with a light stripe, buckle plow shoes.

Arrangements are nearly completed for the Memorial day exercises at this place. The citizens united with the veterans of the late war in this patriotic acknowledge of the justness of the usage which has set apart one day in each year to decorate the graves of fallen heroes with flowers. The committee is in correspondence with and expect to secure an eminent speaker for the occasion. "Dell Cummings and "Bill" Bullard will furnish the music. It is probable the rink will be had for the occasion.

On Sunday next, at 10:30 a. m., at the Disciple church, memorial services will be held in remembrance of those who fell in the late war. Brodhead Post G.
A. R. will attend in a body. Rev. Pallister will deliver the discourse. The other churches will be closed so far as all services are concerned excepting the Sabbath schools. At the same house, in the evening, union services will be held in favor of the Sunday Rest bill. This meeting will be addressed by Rev. Taft, of the First Baptist church. Judge B.
F. Heckert will also make some remarks on the proposed law from a legal standpoint.

New Suits.
John O. Strong vs. Gertrude Strong.
